PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

Vivian Heaberlin
760.244.9265
donheab.1@charter.net

Greetings Quilting Sisters,

Gee, it's only August, and already we have to start planning for next year! By planning, I mean how are you going to serve your guild in 2015? Which office or committee would you like to take on? Priss Bealer is on the nominating committee, and she can help you with your choice. This is an excellent guild, and it is because we have so many members with good working/community service backgrounds. Now is a great time to consider how your skills and experience can best server your guild.

The September meeting is the tea and wearable art show. Bring your favorite tea cup, and wear a hat. Let's all plan to have fun!

Come to the September Sit and Sew to make a pumpkin for your October and November home decorations. Bring a roll of toilet paper, a fat quarter of your favorite fall fabric (lace, velvet, cotton, satin etc.), and we'll supply the rest (pumpkin stem).

October is the long awaited class on free motion quilting. Two weeks later at Sit and Sew, the speaker will be there to help us perfect our skills and give us more tips.

November is election of officers and Quilto (it's like Bingo). Bring buttons (or something to mark your card with), and fat quarter for each Quilto card you want to play, and one lucky lady will go home with all of the fat quarters.

The Christmas part will be the December meeting (would you like to be the chairperson?). Please make a table runner, and think about Christmas food you would like to bring.-

Vivian

NOTES FROM PROGRAMS

Patricia Wells
760.983.1580

Well it's September again and that means it's time for our tea and fashion show. What to do and what to bring? The fashion show features wearable clothing, other than quilts, that you have made.

This year you can bring anything that you do or did throughout the year that is not quilt related. I'm thinking there's a lot of us out there that do more then just quilt and I am one of those. So if you crochet, do tatting, embroidery, sew clothing for grandkids or yourself, or even things for the house. you can bring them and show them off. Please have a 3x5 card with the information on what you are wearing or what you have made, to be read while you display your fashionable items.

Now for that not so much fun stuff, October is the lecture on the desperate house wife quitter. This one is more on the light side and funny, with the holidays coming and all the things that we all have to do sewing, decorating, shopping and cooking, it would be nice to have some fun in a meeting.

October is the quitter retreat from the 17th-19th in Wrightwood, baring that there's no fire that week or that weekend. The cost for the weekend is going to be $25 per person for food, snacks and the patterns.

The theme of the retreat is "Christmas is coming." I will be giving out the yardage amount at the October meeting for the things that we will be showing. I need some ladies that will help me plan the food for the weekend. You can call me or email me if you would like to help out with this.

November is election time and you will need to start thinking about the new year of officers. I think next month is the time we nominate but I think Vivian is the one that starts that. Just reminding everyone of it.

December is the party. I need some ladies to help with planning of the food and the decorations. I'll need about 6 ladies to help. Call me if you can help and what area you would like. I need everything done by the November meeting.

Every one that wants to take part in the free motion quilting class in October, you need to get your payment in to hold your spot. If I don't have 25 people that want to come I am going to open it up to other guilds and friends.

I think I just about covered everything that's is going on for the next few months.

Patricia

Hello ladies!

September is already here! OH my goodness, where did the year go? We have five Tuesdays this month! The first Tuesday, is our Guild Tea and third Tuesday is Sit n Sew. The other three Tuesdays, the ninth, the 23rd and the 30th are the days for Sewation.

This month, when you come to Sewation, we would like you to bring your patterns for hearts and bears.

That way, we can cut out hearts and bears for the first part of our get together. Don't forget to bring your UFO's too. Lunch is pot luck. I try to send you a reminder, but lately I have been having problems with my computer so mark your calendars. I will try, but cannot promise a reminder. See you Tuesdays!

CHARITY

Jan Knowlton
760-962-0049

ianknows1@msn.com

Congratulations to the winners of last months challenge. 1st. Place Dolores Gunn, 2nd. Place Deborah Higgins, 3rd. Place Carrie Morris. A big thanks to Lynn Crawford from the Pine Needles Quilt Guild in Wrightwood for judging. It was a pleasure to have her.

In August I turned in 19 toys and 16 quilts to Children's Services.

Please keep in mind that Desert Winds supports the Orenda Veterans Project in Apple Valley. They need twin size quilts. It is a all male facility providing a systematic recovery-rich living environment for veterans who are in all phases of their recovery process. They do not want charity but would love to be given a gift of love for who they are and what they have given for our country. The quilts do not have to be red, white and blue. Make one that your husband or son would appreciate.

QPC is planning a bus trip to the Palm Springs Quilt Fest Show on Thursday Oct. 2nd. We will gladly take ladies from other guilds and friends and relatives, on a first come first served basis. We need to fill our 55 passenger bus. The cost of the trip is $37, that includes the bus and admission to the show (admission is $14 if you go on your own). The bus will leave Bear Valley Rd and 7th Ave. parking lot (behind Rite Aid) at approximately 8 AM and return at approx. 5 PM (I will let everyone know the exact times in the very near future) I am taking the sign ups now and all I need is their name and a check for $37 made out to QPC. For any questions people can call or email me (760) 247-7044 or sewwhatdlc@hotmail.com At this time we have 25 seats left on the bus.
